

Bio – Christyn Henson
Chief Solutionist, Project Forward
Collaborative Member

BIOGRAPHY

Christyn Henson is a creative economic development professional and develops actionable strategies that assist clients in growth through business planning, operational support, marketing, and sales strategies. Ms. Henson’s extensive experience includes work with community development organizations (CDCs, Chambers of Commerce) to offer BID/SSA management, technical assistance in business operations, access to capital and technology utilization. Her work has influenced multiple scales of growth, helping to spur entrepreneurial spirit, and community development. Ms. Henson is active in community forums and has conducted multiple trainings, workshops, seminars, and panels on business development, access to capital and social media for clients running single person operations to national organizations.