

Bio – Meredith Freeman

Founder and Principal, MJK Community Partners
Collaborative Member

BIOGRAPHY

Meredith Freeman is a highly skilled practitioner with extensive experience in nonprofit management and community development. She earned a Master’s Degree in Management and Urban Policy from the New School in New York City, and worked as a Community Programs Officer with Citibank Global Community Relations and a Senior Program Officer with Detroit LISC. Meredith has also served as an adjunct professor at the New School and Seton Hall University, where she taught graduate-level courses in nonprofit management. As a consultant she has developed and led innovative programs with Fair Food Network and the Detroit Food and Fitness Collaborative, and consults with nonprofits and entrepreneurs on organizational and business development. Meredith is a New York University Wagner School of Public Service IGNITE Fellow, and a W.K. Kellogg Foundation Community Leadership Network Fellow.