BIOGRAPHY

Omar Blayton provides strategic guidance on infrastructure and technology development. Omar is currently Vice President of Structured Finance at Greenskies Renewable Energy LLC, where he focuses on debt and tax equity structuring, as well as M&A and international expansion initiatives.

Prior to Greenskies, Omar was a Vice President with Reznick Capital Markets Securities focusing on asset sales along with the raising, structuring and negotiating of tax equity investments. While at RCMS, Omar's assignments included the sale of a 100 MW solar portfolio in Puerto Rico and the tax equity advisory of a 214 MW MISO wind farm.

Prior to RCMS, Omar was an associate in Bank of America Merrill Lynch's Leveraged Finance Group, focusing primarily on the industrial, healthcare and gaming spaces. During his time at BAML, Omar structured and executed high yield, leveraged loan and asset-based loan transactions for leveraged buyouts, strategic acquisitions and corporate re-financings. He participated in lead left transactions, totaling more than $14 billion.

Before entering finance, Omar was an attorney with Reed Smith LLP where he focused primarily on investment management advisory to one of the nation's largest mutual fund companies.

Omar received his MBA in Finance from the Wharton School. He received a JD from Columbia Law School and his BA from Cornell University.
